TUCSON NEWS.

VOL. 4. TUCSON, PIMA COUNTY, ARIZONA, OCTOBER 30, 1897. No. 84.

BRIEF ITEMS.

The cold spell the first of the week caused Tucsonites to rustle firewood and get up their stoves.

Tucson has the largest barber shop in the territory. The American and Elite barber shops having combined, running seven chairs and fully equipped with modern furniture and bath parlors.

The foundation of the new residence of J. R. Watts, superintendent of the Tucson Water Works, is laid and brick and lumber on the ground for completion, which will be pushed rapidly forward.

Mr. C. D. Hoover, clerk of the district court, is making many friends by his jovial, friendly and accommodating manner, and it is to be hoped that by western acclamation he will lose none of this.

Joe Scholari has purchased the north-west corner of Court and Maiden Lane. Fifty feet on each street; price $40 per front foot or $4,000 for the property. One year ago the property could have been purchased for half that sum.

Mrs. Fred Hughes, through her attorney, Mr. A. Orfila, has given notice of exemption to the sheriff and the plaintiff in the case of A. Lazard vs. Fred G. Hughes, and claiming as exempt the stock of meat cattle which was levied upon by the sheriff in satisfaction of a judgment recorded against Hughes some two years ago. She alleges that this property is necessary for the support and maintenance of her family.—Star.

Hon. Geo. W. P. Hunt, of Globe, is in the city. He has been attending court at Florence, and came this way to spend a day in Tucson. Mr. Hunt was a member of the last legislative council as well as a member of the previous legislative assembly and in both legislatures he made a record of which Gila county is justly proud. He has always recorded his vote in the legislature on the side of the best interests of the territory. For years he has been the Commissioner of Immigration for Gila county and his report on the resources of the county which have appeared in the last three reports reflect much credit upon his ability. Mr. Hunt will leave for Globe tomorrow morning.—Tucson Star.

Tucson Law School.

Tucson is now branching out into formation of educational clubs. Among the latest is the Literary society composed of Tucson's public school teachers and teachers in adjoining districts. The following are members: Prof. S. P. McCrea, Miss Lizzie Borton, Mrs. Ana M. Dyer, Miss May Campbell, Miss Comelia B. Mead, Miss May Merriman, Miss Maud North, Miss Mary V. Priest, Miss Jennie E. Tucker, Miss Kate F. Daniels, Miss Mabel E. Trufrey, Miss Clara C. Fish, Miss Ethel McCormick, Miss Eva Cole, Miss Lizzie Royce, Miss Mary F. Hall and others. This society meets every first and third Tuesday of each month at the residence of some member. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. M. Dyer on Council street.

There is much talk of the formation of a debating club among the young men and it may be expected in the near future.

Tucson's law school is now among the foremost of the educational clubs. It is fairly under way. The students have ordered such books as are necessary and receive at each meeting, which are held at the office of S. W. Purcell, a quiz or lecture, and will as soon as progress will permit, have a series of moot cases to be mooted or tried, as though in the different courts of the United States and in the Territory. It is to be conducted upon the plan of night schools in the larger cities and of the Columbia Law School of New York. The following compose the school: Advisory board: Being the lecturers and instructors in all matters touching upon the progress of the students, is composed of the following practicing attorneys-at-law Col. Wm. H. Herring, Judge C. W. Wright and Sylvester W. Purcell.

The officers in the students organization are President, Chas. S. Edmondson; Vice-President, Lee La Chausse; Second Vice-President, Wm. Angus; Secretary, Harry Y. Harrison; Treasurer, John T. Young. The membership is as follows: W. H. Herring, C. W. Wright, S. W. Purcell, C. S. Edmondson, H. Y. Harrison, G. F. Kitt, Lee La Chausse, John Young, C. O. Rouse, P. S. Hughes, O. R. Hale, W. Angus, G. O. Hinzinger, W. G. Power, A. A. Lysight, S. Y. Barkley and L. Roca.
